Additional comments on the numbers that you've circled above?

- Excellent.
 - Facilitator excellent.
 - Some of the options were too limited to the years or housing with no options to revision of the statement for a different option.
 - I like the fact that you stick to the two-hour time frame despite other comments were off topic.
 - Presentation was great and easily understood.
 - It's all good.
 - Excellent facilitator, really help us to decide the future of Bayanihan.
 - He is awesome. Listened fairly to everybody.
 - The length I believe is appropriate time.
 - Time is not enough.
 - Great facilitator.
 - Excellent speaker or facilitator.
 - For my opinion option 8 was the best route. New building and will be run by partners with expertise in running our centre/housing.
7. What added the most value? (i.e. What was the best part!)
- Information on status of Bayanihan centre.
 - Clear presentation of options.
 - Relaxed, informal, encourage participants to be actively involved.
 - Peoples opinion.
 - Participation.
 - Open discussion.
 - Presentations of options and explanations.
 - Voices are heard. Decisions will come and hope for the best.
 - Very open and engaging. Having back grounder. Sharing options.
 - The feedback, well organized.
 - Realized that members are willing to continue what we started. Good.
 - Activities well done, very professional.
 - Finding out what others thought of the centre. The choices presented.
 - Presenter explained well about options and people can make a better decision.
 - Everything was good. Smiley face!
 - Consensus.
 - Understanding.
 - The best part is the sticker time

CONTINUED - What added the most value? (i.e. What was the best part!)

- Understanding cons and pros.
- Activities.
- The presentation is effective.
- The importance of centre.
- I believe this session was important to determining the future of the centre. (X2)
- Consensus building.
- Putting dots.
- Voting what's the best for the center.
- Expectations.
- Excellent presentation. Helped us choose the best option.
- Feedback from attendees.
- Great to be around people, great discussion and fun.
- Sharing different opinions, different points of view.

8. What added the least value? (i.e. What was the worst part!)

- Not sufficient time.
- Losing the existing building if new place is agreed on getting one.
- N/A - Everything was well explained.
- Everything ok.
- Thinking of selling the centre.
- I missed out on pizza.
- No participation.
- The order of the options. More of a psychological thing (no options first).

9. What is the one thing that the facilitator could do that would most improve this session?

- Thanks!
- Less talk and more questions to draw out more ideas.
- More opinions from others are weighed and the facilitator can give more advice on recommendation.
- Ask people what is their vision for a new facility, and how can we achieve this goal. Are you willing to commit to a financial plan?
- Everything was great, very accommodating, very professional.
- Grow hair, otherwise everything was well presented.
- Understand the option H3. The discussion.
- Encourage the audience for brain storming.
- Ask more questions so others can participate.
- Do it on a Sunday instead of Friday night.
- Explaining every detail.
- Continue whatever you're doing – great job!
- More background into especially for the general public.

10. We welcome any additional comments/feedback that you have in helping us to evaluate this session?

- Wished more people participated in the sessions. Parking lot issues: how to motivate people to get interested? Volunteerism declining across Canada☹
- More discussions.
- More bright ideas. More open discussion and time.
- Thank you, presentation was excellent!
- Key update.
- Good.
- Good job.
- Am good. Very interesting.
- Be objective.
- We would have also talked about location options. i.e. Would more people come if there was parking availability or easier access to bus stops?
- Just to know the consensus of the consultation.
- Yes, enjoyed the session.
